

Mt: Thelu Expedition

GAG

Mount Thelu comes in the Garhwal range of the Himalayas. This region is called a mountaineer's paradise, as there are ample opportunities for climbing. Climbers from all over the world can be seen here, who dream of climbing one of the mountains in the region. This range includes some of the main peaks of the Garhwal region,

Out of these various peaks, Mount Satopanth and Mount Thalayasagar are considered to be the two most difficult peaks to climb. People say that the way to reach the base camp of these peaks is also a long trek in itself. Mount Shivling is known for its eastern pillar, which was the first time Doug Scott actually climbed it in alpine style. GaG (Great Adventure Gangotri)
